GENERAL INFORMATION

Candidates are required to volunteer a minimum of four hours during the 2015 Ellensburg Rodeo. Please call 962-7831 by August 20, 2015 to set up your volunteer time commitment.

Selection of the Royal Court is made by the Ellensburg Rodeo Board and our Allied Organizations. Applicants are judged on the basis of their application information, personal interviews, horsemanship, and public speaking ability. Application may be picked up at your local high school, or is available online at www.ellensburgrodeo.com. Application must be returned to the Ellensburg Rodeo Ticket Office, 609 N Main Street no later than August 26, 2016 by 5:00 pm. The Rodeo Board has the authority to accept applications after the above date if determined to be in the best interest of the Ellensburg Rodeo.

The candidate should be available for personal interview with members of the Rodeo Board. In addition, some board members may visit each of the candidate's homes to explain the Royal Court responsibilities and answer questions of the parents and candidate.

The applicant should be prepared to demonstrate her horsemanship skill before the Rodeo Board. The time and place will be announced for this and all appearances.

The Royal Court Coronation Banquet will be Saturday, January 21st, 2017 at the SURC/ Recreation Building in the Ballroom on the CWU campus. Candidates will be given tickets to sell for the banquet. Campaigning among the members of the Rodeo Board or the Allied Organizations is strictly prohibited!

Probable agenda for the season will consist of appearances at local schools, College/High School Rodeos, Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival, Seafair Parade in Seattle, Omak Stampede, Olympia Lake Fair, Moses Lake, Kennewick, Lewiston, Pendleton, and various parades and rodeos throughout Washington State, as well as radio and television appearances. The Royal Court represents the Ellensburg Rodeo and Kittitas County, and its community - it is not just attending other rodeos during the summer. Many of our appearances are promotional with no rodeo events taking place. The Royal Court is a marketing tool to promote the Ellensburg Rodeo.

If you are selected to represent the Ellensburg Rodeo, Kittitas County, and the City of Ellensburg you will be expected to make many personal appearances, often on short notice. The most important attributes that the Rodeo Queen and Princesses must possess are a comfortable way with people, a willingness to be flexible, and a contagious enthusiasm for her rodeo and community, although being a horsewoman is a necessity as well.

It is an honor to be chosen to represent the Ellensburg Rodeo. It is the duty of each lady chosen to help promote, advertise and sell our rodeo. It is the desire of the Rodeo Board to be helpful in explaining to the ladies and their parents what is expected of them if chosen as a member of the Royal Court. If you or your parents do not feel you can give 100% toward the Royal Court functions and the public relations duties involved, please do not sign and return this form.

RODEO BOARD COMMITMENT

1. The Rodeo Board will award the reigning The Ellensburg Rodeo queen and the princesses a $1,000 academic scholarship, providing they are accepted and enrolled in a state university, community college, or accredited trade school upon completion of her reign. The scholarship will be paid to the university, community college, or accredited trade school upon notification of meeting entrance and attendance requirements.
2. Out-of-town expenses including travel, room and board and meals will be paid for by the Rodeo Board. (Parents pay their own expenses.)
3. Uniforms for the Royal Court will be paid, provided and selected by the Rodeo Board. Cleaning and up-keep is the responsibility of the candidate, if repairs are needed the Ellensburg Board will pay for said repairs. It is important to understand that the Royal Court Director or his designee will have full authority regarding the Royal Court uniforms.

Additional information will follow. Each contestant will be required to sell a minimum of 29 banquet tickets.

We are looking forward to an exciting pageant and hope you will be part of it.

Sincerely,

Brett Wachsmith
