

Long-time Volunteer Dave Adams retires from the Board of Directors

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

After serving 30 years as a volunteer of the Ellensburg Rodeo, Dave Adams retires from the Ellensburg Rodeo Board of Directors.

In 1991, Adams began volunteering at the Labor Day Weekend event. Adams became a member of the Tops Hands in 2000 where he assisted in a variety of areas such as Yakama Indian Nation, parade, flags, and contestant relations.

Adams transitioned to be a Director in 2008 serving 14 years on the Rodeo Board. During that time, Adams had a hand in facilities, grounds, livestock housing, parking, Sunday Night Posse Show, volunteer liaison and Yakama Indian Nation.

Adams shared this sentiment with the Board of Directors “I have enjoyed being a part of an incredible team that believes in tradition and preserving the Western way of life. I am forever grateful for all the opportunities the Ellensburg Rodeo has provided for me and my family.”

While Adam’s focus will be on his family’s new business, Sweetwater Ranch, he will still be near the action during Labor Day Weekend volunteering at some capacity.

The 99th Ellensburg Rodeo runs September 2-5, 2022. More information about the action-packed Labor Day Weekend can be found online at www.ellensburgrodeo.com.

